- Presentation length ranges from a keynote to a full-day program

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

GEN Z CONSUMERS ARE UNLIKE ANY OTHER GENERATION OF CONSUMERS

This new generation communicates, shops, buys, pays, influences, and refers very differently than brands have ever experienced before. This new Gen Z consumer reality is creating a massive challenge for brands, marketers, salespeople, and leaders, and a hidden opportunity—if you know the right strategies and tactics to use with this generation.

In this powerful presentation, Gen Z Consumers Mean Business, Jason Dorsey shares what works to get Gen Z to buy from you now through original research, behavioral insights, actionable solutions, and firsthand stories. This includes what inspires Gen Z to trust your brand—and salespeople—as well as what to do when you're marketing or selling to Gen Z but you're not a member of their generation.

Your audience will leave with numerous step-by-step actions they can implement immediately to drive leads, sales, repeat purchases, and so much more!

“ JASON DORSEY IS ONE OF THE MOST COMPELLING AND ENGAGING SPEAKERS I'VE COME ACROSS IN MY CAREER.

IN FACT, 'SPEAKER' DOES NOT ADEQUATELY DESCRIBE JASON, WHO IS EQUAL PARTS RESEARCHER, SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGIST, AND ENTERTAINER. ”
